5. What are the possible outcomes of my investment

The value of your investment will go up and down with the value of the Fund's assets. You may receive less money than what you have invested and there is no guarantee that you will receive any income distribution.

The risk that you take depends on many factors – for example, which class of assets did the Fund invest in, how long do you intend to invest and the timing of your investment.

KEY RISKS

6. What are the key risks associated with this product?

6.1 Risk and Your Investment

Investors are advised to read the Fund's prospectus and understand the risks involved and if necessary, consult a professional adviser for a better understanding of the risks before investing.

6.2 Specific Risks Associated with the Investment Portfolio of the Fund

Market risk	The market price of securities owned by the Funds might go down or up, sometimes rapidly or unpredictably. Securities may decline in value due to factors affecting the securities market generally or particular industries represented in the securities market. At times, the market environment which typically includes changes in regulations, politics, and the economy of the country would affect the market value of securities. Market risk is also influenced by global economics and geopolitical developments. The Funds may mitigate the risk by engaging in derivatives contracts like futures and options to protect the value of underlying securities. In the event derivatives contracts are unavailable or prohibited, the Manager will sell down our equity investment and hold cash to preserve the capital during adverse market conditions.

Since the major portions of the Funds' investment are in the equity securities, the Unit price of the Funds will fluctuate in line with the market performance. Equity securities generally have greater price volatility than fixed income securities or sukuk.

Individual stock risk	The Fund's portfolio comprises a spread of counters. However, the weak performance of individual counters invested can affect the overall NAV of the Fund and therefore the price of the Units. This risk may be mitigated through the well-diversified nature of Fund's portfolio.

Currency risk	The value of foreign investments will reflect the currency movements. Fluctuations in the denominated currencies of the foreign shares and bonds will affect the price of the Units.

Country risk	The stock prices may be affected by the political and economic conditions of the country in which the stocks are listed. Unexpected events may stop the Manager from realising the full value of assets in those countries.

Liquidity risk	This risk occurs in thinly traded or illiquid securities. Should the Funds need to sell a relatively large amount of such securities, the act itself may significantly depress the value of the Fund's investments and Selling Price and subsequently the value of Unit Holders' investments. The risk may be minimised by placing a prudent level of funds in short-term deposits and by investing in stocks whose liquidity is adjudged to commensurate with the expected level of the Funds.
Interest rate risk	The risk refers to the effect of interest rate changes on the market value of a bond or on the valuation of a sukuk portfolio. In the event of rising interest rates, prices of fixed income securities or the valuation of sukuk will decrease and vice versa. Meanwhile, debt securities/sukuk with longer maturity and lower coupon/profit rate are more sensitive to interest rate changes. This risk may be mitigated via the management of the duration structure of the fixed income securities/sukuk portfolio.
Credit/Default risk	This risk relates to the Funds' investment in sukuk or debt-type investments such as bonds, debentures, fixed income instruments and/or sale of securities, money market instruments and deposit placements. The institution in which the Funds invest in may not be able to make the required interest/profit payments or repayment/payment of principal. The Funds could lose money if the issuer or guarantor of a fixed income security/sukuk, or the counterpart to a derivatives contract, repurchase agreement or a loan of portfolio securities, is unable or unwilling to make timely principal and/or interest/profit payments, or to otherwise honour its obligations.
Derivatives/Structured Product Risk	The Funds may invest in derivatives or structured products, where appropriate for hedging purposes. When the Funds participate in derivatives or structured products for hedging activities, any potential upsides of currency or interest rate or securities' price movements arising is limited as the objective is to protect the Fund's value. Participation in these financial instruments may require the deposit of initial margin and additional deposit of margin on short notice if the market moves against the hedging positions. If no provision is made for the required margin within the prescribed time, the position may be liquidated at a loss. Therefore, it is essential that such positions in derivatives or structured products are monitored closely. Such participation in derivatives or structured products is also exposed to the failure or default of the counterparty to these financial instruments which may adversely affect the Fund's value.
Exchange rate risk and Market Volatility	Exchange rate risk arises from the volatility in currency markets. Investors should be aware that the value of one currency against another can change rapidly. This volatility can result in losses, and it is important for investors to exercise caution when conducting large transactions of the currency they would like to transact in.
Regulatory and Legal Risks	Currency exchange is subject to various regulations in different jurisdictions. Changes in regulatory policies can impact the ease and cost of conducting foreign exchange transactions. Additionally, when investors choose the currency they would like to transact in, they should be aware of potential legal risks when dealing with unfamiliar currencies and foreign financial markets.

9. How often are valuations available?

At the end of each Business Day, the Manager will value the Fund's investments to reflect the Fund's current market price. The NAV per Unit of the Fund will be calculated on a forward pricing basis, which means that it is calculated at the end of the next valuation point, after the application for investment or repurchase of units of the Fund is received by us.

The Fund's NAV per unit will be available on our website, www.pheimunitrusts.com.

10. How can I exit from this investment and what are the risks and costs involved?

Repurchase of Units or Redemption

You may repurchase all or part of your Units on any Business Day subject to a minimum repurchase Units of at least 500 Units or such other limit at our discretion (unless it is a full repurchase). There is no limit to the frequency of repurchase transactions. However, if the request for repurchase leaves a Unit Holder with less than 1,000 Units (minimum holdings), the Unit Holder may be required to make an application to the Manager to repurchase all of the Unit Holder's holdings in the Fund.

You can make a repurchase by completing the transaction form and submitting it through our agents or direct to our head office. Please ensure that the transaction form is signed in accordance with the signing instructions given to us to avoid delays in processing repurchase.

A valid repurchase request received before the cut-off time on any Business Day will be processed on the same day using the Unit price set at the close of the Business Day (forward pricing). If the said repurchase request is received after the cut-off time, the repurchase request will be processed on the next Business Day using the Unit price set at the close of that Business Day. If the application is received on a non-Business Day, the repurchase will be processed on the next Business Day using the Unit price set at the close of that Business Day.

You will be paid within 7 business days from the date we receive a complete repurchase request transaction form.

Cooling-off Rights

A cooling-off right refers to the right of an investor to obtain a refund of his/her investment in the Fund if the Unit Holder so requests within the cooling-off period. The cooling-off period of any Fund is six (6) Business Days commencing from the date of receipt of the complete application form by us. The cooling-off right is only applicable for initial investment by individual investors in any funds managed by us for the first time only. The cooling-off right is not applicable to our staff and persons registered with a body approved by the SC to deal in unit trust funds.

The refund for every Unit held by you pursuant to the exercise of the cooling-off right shall be the sum of:

- (a) the NAV per Unit at the point of exercise of the cooling-off right ("market price"), if the NAV per Unit on the day the Units were purchased ("original price") is higher than the market price; or
- (b) the original price, if the market price is higher than the original price*, and the Sales Charge imposed on the day the Units were purchased.

When a cooling-off right is exercised, the money will be refunded to the applicant within seven (7) Business Days of receipt of the notice of cooling-off by the Manager. The withdrawal proceeds will only be paid to the Unit Holder once the Manager has received the cleared payments for the original investment. In the case of an investment via EPF-MIS, the cooling-off period is subject to terms and conditions imposed by the EPF updated from time to time.

Note: * Where the market price is higher than the original price, the Manager may agree to pay you the excess amount, provided that such amount is not paid out of the Fund or the assets of the Fund.
